Ligwítḁax^w Family Plant Walk

This workshop offers a safe and welcoming space for Ligwítḁax^w people to build connection through learning about our traditional plant medicines. Participants will be guided through a sharing circle, grounding practices, and reflections on the importance of connecting to Ligwítḁax^w identity, land, medicines, wellness, and community.

Together, we will take part in a plant walk to identify medicines that grow in our territory, learn about their uses, and explore embodiment practices on the land.

Who: Open to Wewaikai families (children must be accompanied by an adult caregiver)

What: Land-Based Healing practice

When: May 25th @ 6:00- 7:30pm

Where: Meet at Quinsam Hall to walk wewaikai trails behind BC Hydro

To sign up for a spot please email: socialdevelopment@wewaikai.com or text 250-201-7730 with your name and #.

rachel.west@wewaikai.com

This workshop supports parents and caregivers of Indigenous children and youth navigating the spirit of suicide through a Kwakwaka'wakw, land-based, culturally rooted approach.

It weaves together Indigenous social justice, embodiment practices, and healing methodologies to support collective healing through culture, identity, and connection to land.

WHO IS THIS FOR?

Parents and caregivers of Indigenous youth who are actively self harming or living with the spirit of suicide
